Mix one part sports, one part conflict, and one part tween insecurity with solid writing, and the result is four stories that are perfect for middle school reluctant readers. In Motocross Double-Cross, best friends Carlos and Ricky must put friendship asi --VOYA

When Sean Tiffany was growing up, he lived on a small island off the coast of Maine. Every day, from sixth grade until he graduated from high school, he had to take a boat to get to school. When Sean isn't working on his art, he works on a multimedia project called "OilCan Drive," which combines music and art. He has a pet cactus named Jim.

My fifth grade student is on a third grade reading level and he just hates to read, but this book and the author have sparked hisreading interest! He loved this book and the characters because he loves motorcycles. I have already order Jake Maddox's book about BMX bikes for him and he can't wait to get it. Very nice to have books for boys that struggle with reading.

My son is 10 yrs old and reading is his least favorite thing to do. However, give him a Jake Maddox book and he'll sit and read several chapters at a time. Not to mention they are all about sports, my sons favorite subject.

I am eight years old and this was a great read for me.This is a good book for a guy my age.

You can't beat Jake Maddox for books with high interest and low readability.

Great

My son really enjoyed receiving and reading this book. I'm glad that I ordered it for him and will order again in the future. Thanks!
