Synopsis

Three kings will arise. One from the land. One from the sea. One from fire.HazelÃ¢â ¬â„¢s entire world is turned upside down after her brother Rowan goes missing. Everyone believes he was eaten by a dragon. Everyone but HazelÃ¢â ¬â„¢s sister, Aspen, that is.Hazel has never heard of the dragon prophecy before. She knew about dragons, of course. Her sister, Aspen, made sure of that even though Hazel would have preferred to stay ignorant of the vicious creatures. But the more Hazel learns about Aspen and their familyÃ¢â ¬â„¢s connection to the dragons, the less she wishes she knew. Val never wanted to be king. He never even considered it a possibility. But now the prophecyÃ¢â ¬â„¢s fulfillment has begun, and it starts with him. His journey begins by training with Obsidian. In the process, he learns secrets from his past that shatters everything he knows.. On the way to mainland from Hawaii, Hazel and ValÃ¢â ¬â„¢s worlds collide and will soon have to rely on each other to find Rowan and prevent a human-dragon war.

Valentine ÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â œ Book 3I really, really should not have started this book immediately after the 2nd one of the series with the extra long and busy day IÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢d already had, but the story line was so intense and engrossing that I couldnÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t stop myself. So while it was already late when I began reading it, it was far later in the dark morning hours when I finally put down my Kindle. (Considering I had been nodding off from sheer exhaustion for the previous hour, I managed to read the same couple of paragraphs at least five times before heading to bed. ~lol~) AspenÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s sister joins the story and becomes another main character, all while the rest of them keep the dragon secret from her for much of it. Lots of laugh out loud moments. While not a major character, Runa may actually be my favorite character from the series.

This is one of the best! Much faster pace and lots of new faces and places. I really enjoy how she keeps my interest going. Though not to happy that it's 2 in the morning. Thank you for another good read.

I stumbled upon the first book, Obsidian, a while ago and read it for free through Kindle Unlimited. By the end of that book, I was hooked and ready to read the next one. But Aspen wasn't out yet at that time. Then the process repeated once book 2 was released. This book is the third in the series and I am anxious to read more. While the first two books focus on Aspen and Obsidian as the main characters, this book shifts focus over to a couple new characters that were only mentioned in the previous books: Valentine and Aspen's sister, Hazel. I don't know how to properly gush over this book without giving away spoilers, so I will leave it at that.

I can't get enough of this series! Finished this one in two days and it about killed me to stop reading and finish it the next day because of meetings I had to attend. I'm just grateful the next book in the series will be out any day. I definitely liked the little burst of extra humor this one brought with Runa. I laughed out loud when she was humming the wedding march! As usual, Kim, I am beyond ready for the next book. I LOVE them!!!

Contains SpoilersI can never say anything bad about Kimberly's books. Love them all and this is no different.The group finally figures out who The human killer is. I think it's kinda poetic how it taken care of too. In the first book, Aspen was raped by Marcellus and Sid took care of him. This novel, Theo traumatized Hazel and her bf, Val, took care of him. Each taking care of their women.Loved it like always. Off to read the next.

I have enjoyed all of Kim's books and this was no exception. She kept me guessing throughout the entire book and I could not put it down. Love the story line and I cannot wait to see what happens in the next. Kim is a great author and I recommend her books to anyone who enjoys a great story.

THIS BOOK! That is all I can say to describe how amazing it is. I thought that the series couldn't get any better, but Kimberly keeps proving me wrong. In each book I feel like I grow closer to the characters I already know, and gain new friends as I meet new characters who are introduced. If the books continue to get better with each book, they will all be absolutely amazing!

I loved Obsidian, then I loved Aspen...and Now here is Valentine! Wow another absolutely amazing nail-biter! Val meets Hazel on their way and the two are hysterical and have an instant connection. But time is running out for both of them, for different reasons. The prophecy is coming true, but who is the third? What prophecy? Who will survive, you ask? You have to read the first two books, then this one! Love dragons...this is a book/series with romance, humor, action, adventure, and much more!
