Customer Reviews

The book itself is good. Kids love the art and it does a good job for what it is. The only downside is that (spoiler) the book ends by saying that Allah has 99 names, and then proceeds to list all 99 names. That’s fine for a scholar that wants to know that, but when you’re attempting to read it to a child whose attention span is limited to the pictures and story, you quickly lose their interest.
