Synopsis

When did she become so bold?Regina Perkins played by the rules. She did what was expected of her and lived life between the lines. No one would ever accuse her of taking chances. Being a risk-taker was not in her DNA. But, the first time she saw Gavin Carpenter, all those things went out the window. Dating the father of a student wasn't strictly forbidden and to Regina's mind, that meant she had permission.When did he decide to believe in love again?Gavin Carpenter spent years shielding his heart from women who weren't any good for him, or his son Riley. After a betrayal at the hands of his son's mother, he swore off women, and relationships and was just fine with his life. Until she strolled into his life with her soft smile beguiling eyes. Regina Perkins was the one woman who made him willing to risk it all for one chance to hold her in his arms.Contemporary Romance / BWWM / HEA

Customer Reviews

I loved this story but wished it was longer. This is the story of Gavin and Regina and it is on FIYAH!!! He’s the father of the cutest little boy in Regina’s class. Gavin has the hots for Regina and you know when an alpha has the hots for the heroine, sparks fly immediately and they fly hard.. Gavin gets

Regina to agree to a date and well, you need to buy the book and find out the rest for yourself. It was a beautiful ride but it had some sour notes but Regina was there to help Gavin navigate through it and come out smiling.Reana Malori is a talented writer that gives her readers a good tale every time. She's growing as an author and it's a pleasure to see.

Regina and Gavin were a perfect match. These two had been dancing around their attraction for quite some time when Gavin decided to go for it. Both Regina and I were happy he did...lol. Regina was able to rediscover her old, confident self while Gavin was able to be with a woman that wanted him for him, not what material things he could provide. This was a nice, steamy, quick read and another great job by Reana Malori.

Regina is a teacher and Gavin's son, Riley is her adorably rambunctious student! They have been aware of each other for a while now. Gavin finally makes the first move and asks Regina for a date. Naturally, they hit it off. There is a little drama in Gavin's life but he handles it without jeopardizing his relationship with Regina. My only complaint is it was too short but I say that about most books!

Even though this was a quick read, it was a nice complete story. Regina is Riley's teacher and she has a crush on his father. Unbeknownst to her, his father Gavin has a crush on her. There is one major twist in this story that kind of changes the game, but definitely adds intrigue to the story.

Gavin and Regina took a long shot on love. They had a few obstacles but true love is their greatest weapon. The lovebirds have a lot of things in common. The chemistry between them will make your heart sing a love song. Riley had me laughing so hard when told his dad about Misty.

Gavin, Riley's father has always been attracted to Regina, Riley's teacher. He finally asked her out on a date and they let their attraction and love for each other grow.Great book!

Yasssss a man that speaks from the heart with no hesitation letting you know what his intention and future plans for you as a couple are with nothing but sincerity just love this story!!!

This is such a lovely story. The characters are rounded and not perfect. I love that we get to see behind the actions of the characters, I love the message that love does not depend on race. This one I will read again.
