Lowell’s empathy for the human condition is deftly limned in singular portraits of Americana. -- Publishers Weekly

Susan Lowell’s books include the southwest bestseller The Three Little Javelinas, Cactus Flowers, Saguaro: The Desert Giant (with Anna Humphreys), and a Western cookbook, Clouds for Dessert. She lives with her family in Tucson, Arizona.

This is a very little book with a cursory overview of the topic. It’s deceptive in that it looks like a real book, but is just a cute little booklet.

Many a homeowner would incorporate a Navajo-style rug design into a home project without a second thought about its background history: what better guide for enlightenment or coffee table than the small Navajo Rug Designs by Susan Lowell, discussing color, patterns, and history of the Navajo rug. Anthropology and textile art blend in a discussion which includes both vintage photos and colorful rug images from more modern times. A lovely, detailed coverage.
