Excellent. Ella & Westley. Ella takes a baby from a mother who died in childbirth and heads to the Remington plantation in Mississippi because she has been told that they will not turn her away and will provide a wet nurse for the baby whom she names Westley the master of the plantation, she pretends to be master Westleys wife in order for her to keep living on his plantation. What a surprise for him when he finally returns home from the war. They both understand the way of war, but with opposing views. This story bears a strong Christian witness. A vivid picture of what our country had become post War Between the States. Ella finally concludes that in the Lords eyes she was priceless, and Strength is not the same as independence. Vivid exciting story.

This was an amazing book. It captured my attention from the first three paragraphs. I was in awe of the imagery that was presented and the dreams that Ella had. The scenes brought me to tears. The words spoken were straight from the Bible which made the scenes that much more powerful. I loved watching both characters grow into who they were meant to be and in their relationship to Christ. Highly recommend this book.

I began reading Stephenia McGeeÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s In His Eyes on my iPhone, meaning to only read a page or two. Three hours later I was still readingÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã Â|on my iPhone! This book is that good. Ella Whitaker caught my attention and my heart. She showed such courage in taking the baby born to a dying woman to raise as her own when she had nothing, not even milk. Then when she played the part of Major Westley RemingtonÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s wife, that sealed it. I had to see how the story ended.If you enjoy independent, plucky heroines and honorable, courageous heroes, then In His Eyes if for you.

Thank you Stephenia for yet another christian novel ...a blessing to all of your readers! May God bless u abundantly ÃƒÂ¢Ã ËœÃ Âº

I loved this book. It was amazing to me to see how the characters changed. . I love historical fiction. I love the way Stephenia McGee writes. Looking forward to more books written by her.

To me the story had a rather slow start and I almost decided to not continue reading. But by chapter 3 the story really became interesting and I was so glad that I had decided to keep readingThis is a story of love, respect, and determination. The author does a great job of describing the scenery..

Wow, this story was excellent! It’s more than a romance story, there’s so many layers within this book that will keep the reader entertained. The writer did an excellent job with the plot and characters.

A historical novel that shows the harshness of post Civil War south and the faith some keep in their hearts to help support their strength in difficult times.
