This book is well written, has a nice rythmn and is a good jumping off point for talking to my children about Passover. I gave it 4 stars not 5 because I don’t "love" it, but I do like it very much and would recommend it to others. It is a short book.

Enjoyable book that is good for children 1 year and younger. There are not too many details.

Adorable book. Not only a great seasonable story but all year long. My grandson insists on reading it all year long. Well written and age appropriate.

grand daughters first holiday book good story for the younger set. also good because it is a board book that the youngest childcan hold for themselves.

Great book for toddlers. Read it to my 2 year old grandson last night

I want to make sure my great grand son knows about our Wonderful God.

So,so.
