I buy this calendar every year and love it. It’s just what I am looking for. Has Hebrew months as well as secular months. Shows all secular and Jewish holidays.

A classic diary calendar that tells you exactly the days to say Yizkor, and what to read for all the Jewish holidays (at the back), candlelighting times, with photographs of beautiful artifacts from the Jewish Museum; the back pages include a double set of pages listing ’Torah and Prophetic Readings’ for the year 5777, four pages of holidays that include Hebew date, Candle Blessings, Torah Readings, Prophetic Readings, Additional Readings, Theme/element, Bibical/historical significance, Seasonal significance, mood/setting, and selected customs; and a fifth spread of candlelighting times worldwide and a list of holiday dates from 2017 to 2030.

we get this calendar every year. it gives the gregorian calendar and the jewish calendar side by side so we can see when the holidays come up.

This is a gift. It has much more information than expected. We will enjoy all year long.

I bought this calendar to keep up with the Jewish holidays. I am Christian and my boyfriend is Jewish. I love the calendar and all of the awesome images. However, I did not realize that this is a spiral bound desk calendar. What I really wanted was a wall calendar. It would be nice if "Desk Calendar" were indicated in the description. Since this is a desk calendar, I find that we often forget about it and forget to mark things in it. I want to know if this is available in wall version. That way, we could proudly display the beautiful images within this calendar for our friends to see.

Beautiful artwork and a great calendar to have with Hebrew months and days on right side and regular calendar on the left

A regular annual order, for at least 9-10 years. Has exactly what I need. Accurate Jewish holidays, including erev, American holidays, and enough room daily to write the details of multiple appts.

These are getting more and more scarce. Ten years ago there were several to chose from. Now there is only one. Fortunately it’s a beautiful one.
