Massimo Bottura is the chef patron of Osteria Francescana, a three Michelin star restaurant based in Modena, Italy. Massimo grew up in Modena and developed an interest in cooking from a young age after watching his mother, grandmother and aunt in the kitchen preparing family meals. In 1986 he left a law degree to open his first restaurant and subsequently went on to develop his love of food with stages for Alain Ducasse at Louis XV in Monte Carlo and Ferran AdriÃƒÂ¡ at elbulli. He opened Osteria Francescana in 1995.

A very well written and engaging book. Bottura mixes regional history with the tale of his Osteria Francescana, as well as with personal vignettes. I have been honored to eat at his restaurant twice, and after reading his book, I can not wait to return to it. This handsomely illustrated monograph is a must for all lovers of innovative cooking. Bravo, Chef Bottura!

This book is gorgeous with imaginative recipes. This book is not for the average home cook, but for those who are inclined to take up the challenge of cooking like a professional. The recipes do require some special equipment, and ingredients, but if you are up to challenge, they are delicious.

Love this chef. His love of food is truly brought out in this book. The majority of the book is pictures and narrative but there are recipes in the back. I must admit I have not made any recipes yet due to my schedule but I am looking forward to trying them! My family is from Modena, Italy so I am very excited to make food from the town my family is from.

Amazing book!

Perfect for Mommy!

I didn't realize this book was going to be so lovely. Beautiful photographs. A very handsome book.

An amazing fusion of soul and technique. The musings and insights in this book alone would be worth the price, nevermind the genius recipes and gorgeous photography.

great book, a look into the creative process happening at Massimo's kitchen. great read for people interested in food and cooking.
