Synopsis

"Starting with the question, Ã¢â ¬Å“what is a family?Ã¢â ¬Â• Family Law for Non-Lawyers uses current events, sometimes with tabloid-style fact patterns or celebrity participants, to illustrate the complexities of and rapid changes in the field of family law while maintaining a high level of student interest. The book also capitalizes on recent U.S. Supreme Court family law cases to allow the reader to play Justice and try to guess how the cases will be decided. The book surveys family law in general, familiarizing the reader with the similarities and differences in the law throughout the country. Short summaries of the law and related cases bring legal principles to life in an easy-to-use, often humorous way. Contentious issues such as same-sex marriage, birth control, and assisted reproduction share the stage with courtship and divorce, custody/child support, and parental rights in this enlightening but entertaining read. Family Law for Non-Lawyers raises issues and covers topics that will challenge both the reader familiar with family law and the novice. Student-friendly and jargon-free, the book is a perfect tool for courses in family studies, couples/family therapy, paralegal studies, and undergraduate and graduate family law classes. Kerry Weil Tripp, J.D., is a graduate of the Notre Dame Law School and practiced law in San Francisco and Baltimore. For over a decade, Dr. Tripp has taught both undergraduate and graduate law courses. She is currently an instructor in the Department of Family Science, School of Public Health at the University of Maryland, College Park."

I’m taking a family law class and this is the book we are using. Usually you see law books and you want to run away. This book is so interesting and easy to follow. The author adds very interesting cases to each chapter. I love reading them. And the fun quotes before each chapter is an added bonus.
