Customer Reviews

In my opinion, the Barber Violin Concerto is on a level of its own. Hauntingly beautiful, it has a totally unique soundscape. Its color and sound is second to none. I love this edition of the Barber, and will continue returning to Schirmer for sheet music.

I am running into some issues when comparing this 2014 version with my teachers 1949 issue--which is to be expected. However, I find that the older copy is actually more enjoyable and comfortable to read. Kind of strange, but there it is.

The revised (2014) edition has smaller prints, compare with the old (1949) edition, and it's harder to read.

The violin part was missing.

The 2014 revised version took some liberties with bowings, and most of them don't make sense. Occasional wrong notes printed.
