Synopsis

The Spirit moved in dramatic ways in the early church. The gospel was preached, thousands were added to their number, many were healed, and the good news about Jesus was spread across continents. Covering the exciting action of the Spirit in the years just following Jesus' life on earth, this study will open your eyes to the Spirit's power in the past and present and help you apply the riches of Scripture to your own life. John Stott is one of the world's leading and most loved Bible teachers and preachers. In this guide you can explore Scripture under his guidance, enhancing your own in-depth study with insights gained from his years of immersion in God's Word.

John R. W. Stott (1921-2011) has been known worldwide as a preacher, evangelist and communicator of Scripture. For many years he served as rector of All Souls Church in London, where he carried out an effective urban pastoral ministry. A leader among evangelicals in Britain, the United States and around the world, Stott was a principal framer of the landmark Lausanne Covenant (1974). His many books have sold millions of copies around the world and in dozens of languages. Stott's best-known work, Basic Christianity, has sold two million copies and has been translated into more than 60 languages. Other titles include The Cross of Christ, Understanding the Bible, The Contemporary Christian, Evangelical Truth, Issues Facing Christians Today, The Incomparable Christ, Why I Am a Christian and Through the Bible Through the Year, a daily devotional. He has also written eight volumes in The Bible Speaks Today series of New Testament expositions. Whether in the West or in the Two-Thirds World, a hallmark of Stott's ministry has been expository preaching that addresses the hearts and minds of contemporary men and women. Stott was honored by Time magazine in 2005 as one of the "100 Most Influential People in the World" and was named in the Queen’s New Years Honours list as Commander of the Order of the British Empire. In 1969, Stott founded the Langham Trust to fund scholarships for young evangelical leaders from the Majority World. He then founded the Evangelical Literature Trust, which provided books for students, pastors and theological libraries in the Majority World. These two trusts continued as independent charities until 2001, when they were joined as a single charity: the Langham Partnership. Langham's vision continues today to see churches in the Majority World equipped for mission and growing to maturity in Christ through nurturing national movements for biblical preaching, fostering the creation and distribution of evangelical literature, and enhancing evangelical theological education.

Excellent... Just what I wanted...

Too many blanks... I don't buy study books so I can read open ended questions with 3/4 of the page blank for my responses... I want the authors insight.. Not leading questions...Having said that, the commentary in the book is good... But if you took the blanks out of the book it would not be about 30 pages of material..

This book is great for our Bible study group. I like how he divided the material into manageable sections, asked insightful questions and gave informative background material to consider.Diane B.

Unfortunately this is not what I expected. I anticipated a book that would add more insight into the Chapters and verses of the Acts. While this did touch upon that need slightly, it just wasn't enough to help foster a deeper understanding of the Acts.

This study has everything I need. Many of the ladies are new to Bible Study. This book has worked for the newest to the more mature student. Love it and would recommend this one..

comprehensive study, however, the questions are too confining to the subject material and do not really open the door for group discussion. The facilitator has to deviate from the chapters to get class members involved.

We have started this, and it’s been really good. It really gets into the scriptures.

The men in our Friday morning Bible Study love the running commintary by John Scott. It seems to have sound theology - sticking to the text and questions related to the subject, but we are only into the second week.
