Synopsis

David Stage is a warehouse supervisor for a large retail company who manages a staff of over three hundred. At work he is known as a hard task master that doesnÃ¢â ¬â„¢t give an inch but at home is another story. His wife Linda Stage is a Mortgage Broker and runs her own office. They live in the city of Houston Texas raising their two children and have been married for twenty- two years. Seems like the perfect family anyone on the outside looking in would say, but a closer look reveals the dark nightmare that David has been going through since year one of saying I do to his lovely wife and his tormenter. David is one of many men that live in silence of domestic abuse because of fear of embarrassment as a man. Can David regain his manhood taking the place as king in his home or is his fate sealed to being LindaÃ¢â ¬â„¢s footstool forever? Can the Lord restore this family from darkness? This is his Midnight Hour.

Customer Reviews

Each book gets better and better. This was one of the best and fulfilling I have read in a long time.

Thank you Mr Ray. God is still on the throne.

Wow I am a woman and I'm saying I don't know if I could stay under that pressure he is a strong man, but channelled his anger at his employees which was wrong. I was hoping since they came together in peace at the end couldn't there have been a six month update or something on their lives without ending when God was working oh well. But this book had a lot of misspelled words and misused words

I didn' t like how Linda was treating her husband like he wasn't nothing especially after he had his heart attack I felt so bad for him & his kids I was glad Bree gave her a rude awakening I liked the way Author Andre Ray incorporated scriptures into the book & glad Linda saw what she was doing to her family & decided to rededicate her life to the Lord overall all it was a good book

Forgiveness and love is all that we need. The Lord said we will suffer. There isn't a time table on how long your storm will last.

Andre Ray is a new author for me and I would like to say I really enjoyed reading "Midnight Hour". Praise God for His ministering word in Christian fiction!

This is an example that abuse is not a respector of gender, it maybe more common than we see, buy it hurt my heart never the less...It is never ok to tear someone down..

The story was just as gripping as the cover ...I enjoyed every page. This book will provide strength to any couple in their Midnight hour...

I very much enjoyed reading this book ,but the author needs to very badly get a command of the English language. Grammar was just awful!
