It’s funny how little we know about someone’s true life or self. People let us see what they want us to see and hide what is private and personal to them. Gina is so desperate to marry a guy she sold her soul to the devil. Malik loves who he loves and predestined to be who he eventually becomes. Esther is the most bitter first lady I have ever met but then again a lot of others are the same just hide it so well. Where God’s power is the enemy cannot withstand the wiccan had to leave the premise. WOW is a better way to describe this book. Awesome work H. H. Fowler.

This book was amazing!!!It had my mind just going back & forth trying to figure this puzzle out.This gives so much in site on how people that don’t get what they want from God in their timing can easily fall and other cults help them think that their way is better ... so far from what his plans are for us.I’ve just love the reassurance of his word & power of prayer & when 2 or more are gatheredGreat read for someone questioning prayer & his love for us

This book held my interest from the first part. Isabella was bit grown for her age, however she loved Malik. Malik was different from his womanizing father loving one woman. Gina loved Malik as well a resorted to witchcraft to get him. This story had many twists and turns but the story came together. It demonstrates how one can be caught up in witchcraft but let’s you know that God is greater and does use Christians to pray and minister to those needing prayer. Was happy to see Malik and Isabella get together and that Frederick didn’t forget his so. His wife Estelle got what she deserved. Good story that flowed smoothly

I absolutely loved this story. It did not end as I predicted, but it was a very good story. My Fowler is a great writer and the story lines always draws the reader in. I felt that I was right there in the story. I had some issues with the spirits that kept haunting the character. It wasn’t in a bad way, but I can say that I was a little afraid while reading it. I truly believe in the power of prayer and the story line was a good example of what happens when people are obedient to God and pray for others as God places it on ours.

Excellent read! Great story telling!

Excellent book to show what prayer can do and that spiritual warfare is also real and that the devil is already defeated.

I usually don’t write reviews but I MUST say that I Love this book and thoroughly enjoyed it. When I read mother Wendy powerful prayer it ignited my spirit and I felt the.power of God through Chile’s in my body. Great author Great book

I thought this was very good. I enjoyed it very much, and liked how it ended
