Synopsis

With an elephant-head, potbelly and a penchant for good food, Lord Ganesha is one of the most popular and loved of the Hindu gods. Each of the illustrated stories in the book provide children with different aspects of Ganesha, be it his mischief, humour, devotion to his mother or his gentle, compassionate nature.

Customer Reviews

Pooja Pandey dwells deep in traditional Indian literature and mythology to bring it close to young readers by her lucid writing. Apart from entertaining children, she lays stress on inculcating moral values among them, which is an inseparable part of Indian literature and mythology.
