I am actually using this as a text for adult ESL students. I teach an advance transitional academic English class for adults. They are reading the various parts aloud and listening to the musical parts as intermixed and they are loving it. It’s caused them to recall childhood stories from their own culture and some are similar to those used in ITW. The music provides a great bridge for comprehension since each song is in itself a condensed story. We completed Act I last week and the watched that segment before Easter holiday. They were enthralled and the bursts of laughter really made me understand how deeply this art form goes regardless of your country of origin. Thank you Stephen. Thank you James. Sharing it with my beloved students brings back that magical Friday night long ago when I sat in the Martin Beck theatre and was enraptured for the very first time. Cheers!

I am currently involved in a local production of INTO THE WOODS and to find a libretto that I can hold in one hand is a dream come true. THANKS!

It was ok. Kinda hard to read since it’s like a screenplay book. It made me want to watch the movie though.

I’m totally biased. I absolutely love this story. Sure, the music is what makes this musical so fun, but the storyline is actually REALLY GREAT. Quite a bit of the story is left out of the music.If you’re not a HUGE fan of the musical, this is NOT the book for you. But if you think the music is pretty terrific, you really ought to read this book!!!

I remember having this book when i was little and LOOVED the illustrations. It is a very long story though, so if you have very little kids they probably will not last through a full reading (as i fully remember happening with me). The story is based off of a 1980’s Broadway musical that I recently found out they’re turning into a movie. I wanted to get this book before the movie came out and was scared the prices would go up exponentially and they’d re-do it with images from the movie and so I ordered this ASAP. Very happy.

I was so excited to find this book again! I checked it out as a kid from the library at my elementary school, and never even knew it was a play until my high school performed it. It’s a great story (or rather a fine mix of many stories), and the illustrations are lovely. I’m excited as an adult to re-read it and watch the stage production on Netflix (if they are still streaming it) before the Disney version comes out next month.

This was exactly what we were needing. Thanks!!!!

This item was perfect and was exactly what i was expecting. The item came in no time and was very well packaged and in a great shape. I’m very happy and pleased with the item i received and want to thank the seller for a terrific product.
