Cute book. Our three year old daughter absolutely loves it. My only criticism is the story really doesn't flow well and the wording seems "off" - kind of choppy. For the most part each page is a short little bit relating to the picture on the page, until you get the astronauts... look out for them, they're kind of wordy and out of place. Still a good book for a 3 year old who loves planes and requests this almost every night... even the astronauts.

This is a fun colorful story for children to listen to as they prepare for a nap or bed time. My Grand daughter loves to read all the Good Night Books. They help with her imagination as well as word recognition to the picture that is displayed.

My son is 1 1/2 and loves planes. Every night, he has me read him this book and Chicka Chicka Boom Boom. When I leave the room, he pulls this plane book back out, and "reads" through it with the light from his nightlight.

Got this book to prepare my 2 year old for his first flight. It's been a favorite for some time now. He asks for it all the time!

Our one and a half year old son LOVES this book. My husband and I are both pilots and it looks like he has a love for it too. The story is simple and cute and pictures are great! I bought 3 airplane books that day and this is his favorite.

Gave as a shower gift to a baby girl destined to be a traveller. Mom and dad loved it.

Paid for new book & book looked used

My airplane crazy 21 month old son really enjoyed this book! He happily pointed out the things he had seen in the book at the airport while we waited to board the planes. Even the bystanders said they enjoyed listening to the short story of airports and airplanes!
