Sunset Cook Book of Favorite Recipes : 800 Recipes [Paperback]

One of my favorite cookbooks of all times, and one of the first I ever owned. I think this is the fifth one of these I’ve bought, because the others finally fell apart. There are recipes that may seem a bit dated, but there are classics that stand the test of time, as well. I particularly recommend the flank steak, the homemade mayonnaise (to which I add a few garlic cloves), and the green goddess dressing.Bon appetit!

This was to replace my long-time falling-apart cookbook, out of print now apparently and later editions have different recipes. I was very pleasantly surprised at the condition of the book, looked like it had never been read. Terrific value at $3.95. I have sent copies to my daughters-in-law too.

I was extremely happy to get this book in such good condition. I’ve had my old one since the 1970"s and literally pages were coming loose and all my favorites pages were etched in grease and all the earmarks of my favorites. I have been scanning all the local thrift stores for the past five years before seeing it on and was so excited!! It truly is my favorite cookbook and I have many.

Received this book and it replaced one I had many years ago. Worn but was happy to find some priceless recipes again. Will order from them again.

Sunset Cook Book of Favorite Recipes : 800 RecipesM.R. Piper. The recipes are easy to follow and has some of our favorite dishes in the book.

As a new bride, I learned to cook from this book. (I can read - LOL!!)I made very good meals from it, and impressed my lawyer husband.Since my copy is so beat up (sign of a good cook book), I wanted another fresher copy!Have a good collection of Sunset cook books!! Love them!

This is my most used recipe book. Not always easy recipes but I have never been disappointed. I most often make the Monkey Bread, Pinnaple-Carrot cake, Cinnamon sour cream coffee cake, and a couple of the stew beef recipes. My original copy is old and tattered and unbound now, in a folder on my recipe book shelf. I am shopping for a copy now that has my missing page 67-68 (Sun River Bannana Bread). This is a Favorite recipe book. Happy eating!

Great old cookbook. All the recipes are excellent.
