Synopsis

Book 2 of the bestselling The Raven and the Werewolf series. You asked for it, now here it is. The sequel to the first YA paranormal romance book in the series. In City of Matefinders, Emily Madison enchants you into more of this magical, mystical world of werewolves, vampires, witches, wizards, fairies and dare we say zombies too? You won't believe what unfolds ... Raven, now a werewolf princess, may be in over her head with the wicked Queen willing to risk everything she holds dear for an unnatural alliance with the enemy. Told from the perspective of Jaden - Alpha and Prince of Werewolves, Raven, the Queen and the conniving brother, Andrew, this story will captivate you. contains a cliffhanger you'll love **

Customer Reviews

Oh my gosh this is a great book I'm recommend this book for everyone to read also to join her Fanclub so you can give updates on new books when they come available I have nothing negative to say about this book I love the first one I love the second one This one had my mouth wide open I cannot wait for book3

This book is full of everything you could desire, mystery, romance and suspense. I highly recommend you read both books in order. I can’t wait for the next book

Both books so far in this series have been very good they leave you wanting more grammar and spelling are not the greatest but you can overlook that

I loved this book!! Would recommend it to everyone. Packed with action that keeps you on your toes!! But let me tell you that I hate cliffhangers!! Can’t wait to read the next one!! I read 1 & 2 in one day let’s see if I can finish 3.

This book was interesting and kept you on your toes it shows what you can do when you are loved and care about the one’s around you
