Synopsis

*Each One a Minister, a revised and enlarged edition of Carter's previous book by the same title, begins with a six-session study of Ephesians. Carter engages the reader in discovering the meaning of church, ministry and gifts - from the early church up to the present. As a follow-up to the Bible study, readers and study groups look at ways in which Gods gifts are practical as well as spiritual. Four ministry categories, closely connected to the congregational primary task (receive, relate, equip, send), are identified. Scripture readings, activities and ways to implement specific ministries are suggested. Designed to encourage individuals to discover Gods call to ministry in their own lives, Each One a Minister leads toward practical ways of using gifts in ministries in our congregations and in our communities. An ideal resource for clergy, lay leaders, study groups and others seeking to identify and use their gifts in meaningful ways. Lay Speaking Ministries Basic Text (Advanced Course): Lay Speakers Discover Spiritual Gifts)

William J. Carter, a retired ordained minister of The United Methodist Church, leads numerous retreats for local church staffs and Bible study sessions throughout the Southeast. His ministry career includes 28 years as a pastor of local churches in the Holston Conference (Tennessee) and service as director of the Holston Conference Council on Ministries.

Good book on discovering and helping others discover their talents and gifts. After reading this you should have a good idea of how God s blessed you and how you can give back to Him.

Great book, that everyone should read.....

The written exercises are very helpful.

Very good teaching and learning tool.

This is a good overview of Ephesians and why gifts are needed; it does not contain a set of questions to help you identify your gifts. If you need a gifts inventory, try books/study guides by Don and Katie Fortune. One is called Discover Your God-Given Gifts.

Using this book for our UMC District Lay Speaker/Servant training. Great source.

The book was very interesting and used for my Disciple Class, again thanks.

good book
