Customer Reviews

My daughter and I hosted a bridal shower for her best friend. Though my daughter did most of the planning with regard to favors, food and dÃƒÂ©cor, I read this nice little book to remind me of the etiquette and expectations of a bridal shower. The book include some useful advise and suggestions, and though it isn't a comprehensive guide to hosting a bridal shower, you will find many useful tips and reminders.

This is a really good book for anyone looking to plan a bridal shower. All of the important things are included, such as, food, location, gifts, favors, etc. This book makes sure to cover all of the important things that are necessary to planning a bridal shower so that you will not forget anything and your shower will be a hit. The ideas for gifts, themes, and favors in this book are really cute and would be great for any bride. I would highly recommend that any maid of honor read this book before planning a bridal shower.

This is a great, handy guide for throwing a bridal shower, or helping to throw one. Are you wondering who should be invited to a bridal shower? How about should a shower be given to a bride on her second wedding? What are the duties of the Bridesmaids and Maid-of-Honor? The answers to these, and many more questions, are in this book. Planning the perfect shower can be overwhelming, let this book will help guide you thru.

I didn't find much new in bridal shower planning from this book. A quick online search would provide the same information - and for free. Save your money.

Most of this is common sense. Could be used as a checklist but not much more.Mother of the Bride
