Laura Garnham was born in Dartford, and studied Art and Design at Warwick University. She now lives in rural France with her husband. THE TINIEST MERMAID is her first picture book. This book is beautiful and such a touching and lovely story. My daughter is just getting interested in mermaids at age 3 (almost 4 now). She loved this book so much. I wish I had read the book before I wrapped it just a couple days before Christmas. I would have gone out and found a shell that you can hear that ocean sound in like the one spoken of in the book and given it along with the book. She immediately wanted one of those shells. It's such a cute book -- one that really captures the imagination of a little girl. You will not be disappointed with this book. It's lovely.

It's hard to figure out which books to order for my granddaughter because you never know until they arrive and you read them whether they're good. This one is special. I hit the jackpot. There's action, there’s little-girl suspense -- and, of course, there are mermaids. Even for the non-mermaid crowd, this book tells a great story. Not only won’t you be disappointed, I suspect you might be thrilled like I was.

Cute story. The little girl finds a little mermaid stranded after getting hurt. She nurses he mermaid back to health and then releases her again to the ocean. My daughter loves the pictures, which have the mermaid’s tail getting shinier as she gets healthier (foil on the page.) it leads to a lot of good discussions with my 3 yr old daughter, especially about helping others and what it means to be a good friend. I gave her this book for Christmas along with aurora world inc Merida mermaid and she carries the two together.

The story is wonderful, my 5 & 7 year olds LOVE IT! I was disappointed to find that the book had a red pen mark under a couple words on the first page. Seller said it was "new". If it was new, I doubt it would have a red pen mark.

It’s so nice to have a mermaid book to read to my daughter which is not about Ariel. My daughter loves to substitute the names of the characters with her and her friends names. Great illustration, sweet story.

We bought this with a mermaid doll for our three year old’s birthday and she has really enjoyed it. A sweet story with lovely illustrations. A good calm down or bedtime book and with enough of a story and pictures to capture our five year old as well. In a nutshell (or seashell) a mermaid is rescued by a little girl and heals in her fish tank and as she does the pictures become more sparkly which intrigued both children. A little more plot and I would have given it 5 stars.

My daughter loves this book - back when i read it to her at 3/4 yrs old and now at 7, when she reads it to me!

My daughters favorite book. I read this book every day at least once. Nicely written and beautiful illustrations.
