We were taking a cross country road trip and I was trying to reduce the amount of screen time my kids had and also hone the much needed skill of handwriting. I needed something that would seem mature enough for my middle schooler and soon to be high school freshman so I gave this workbook with inspiring quotes a gamble. It was received with mixed results. The 12 year old girl LOVED it, practiced, saved the quotations, improved her handwriting, and it had the exact results I was hoping for. The 14 year-old boy was not so motivated or impressed. He looked through it and tried a few but it just did not inspire him. But I knew it would be a stretch for him. The quotations are great and it is well formatted. I recommend it for younger middle schoolers.

I got this for my daughter who was one of the unfortunate children who should have been learning cursive when they were going to take it off of the agenda to teach. it's really helped her learn cursive in a very easy manner. It's very instructional and the quotes are an interesting way to end the day while she's practicing.

This is a nice book for practicing handwriting. It does not teach the formation of individual letters, so it's not really for children just beginning to learn cursive. I am using it as practice for my daughter who is homeschooled. The quotes are nice and usually begin a good quick conversation about what they mean. The pages have separate sections on the top and bottom. The top shows the quote and gives a place to trace and practice a few of the words in the quote. The bottom gives blank lines to write the quote. Overall, a nice practice book.

My 10 year old son loves this. The quotes truly are inspiring which is something I think we all need.

This is a good buy. I need to refresh my writing skills to compensate for my age and body changes. This purchase was on the money, It had a good price, and the shipping was fast.

There is no instruction on connections, and proper formation of letters. It would be great for supplementing a more in depth cursive instruction program.

I bought this for my fourth grader to practice handwriting. We've also had a few interesting discussions about the meaning and origins of the quotes.

I am disappointed in how small the print is. Most cursive handwriting practice has much bigger writing, but this is very small and compact. It's been hard for my 9 year old students to use.
