Synopsis

In Prairie Center, Kansas, all of Prairie County gathers After the Harvest for its first organized fair, and Judith Timmons hopes it's the last event she has to attend before moving back East. But a certain Rylan Gaines has taken a fancy to the berry tea she sells at the fair. What might that mean to Judith's plans? As Anita Gaines prepares entries for the 1905 fair, she also faces A Test of Faith. Will she find the love of her life only to lose him in the upheaval of adding a new stepmother and stepsister to her family? Garrison Gaines enters Prairie County society as a judge at the 1946 fair cook-off. Will he find a Goodie Goodie there to benefit his new catering business - and his life? At the fair's "beautiful baby" contest rehearsals, old high school friends Zachary Gaines and Beth Whitrock renew acquaintances. Can a committed career woman and a man who has vowed never to marry again have A Change of Heart? Like the longstanding Prairie County Fair love has a way of enduring - not only over the years, but across the generations.
