Customer Reviews

If you’re ordering this... you pretty much already know you wanted it and ordered this edition on purpose.If you don’t know the piece (which... if you’re a violinist at this level... you do..) look it up.As to the other review that it is a "copied" version... This is not true. This is a real edition... In fact the one that OMEA recommends for solo and ensemble contest. Maybe this person has never purchased a Schirmer edition.I received exactly what I ordered and am happy with my purchase.

The book that I received is just a "photocopy" version. The front and back covers also "sort of look like original" yellowish thicker paper. Also, they have done the worst stapling job right on the middle page, so the book self opens at the same page because of those stupid staples. Including the shipping cost, I paid more than 10 dollars for this book, but in return I did not even get a decent quality item in the mail. I could have printed out a waaay better copy from the versions that are available here and there online. Totally disappointed.
