Customer Reviews

This book is for fans of Itachi who want to know a bit more about his childhood. While there is admittedly not much new information for fans who have watched the anime and read the manga, fans of his character will enjoy getting into his head. This book may disappoint readers who are looking for a vast amount of new information about Itachi and his family. Many lines and passages from the book were taken directly from the anime and manga, but there are quite a bit of scenes that were not described in depth in the anime and manga. Itachi’s development from a very young boy to a ninja is quite well-written and enjoyable.

Absolutely love this book. Not only did it brought out the true side of itachi and the way he thinks, but his relationship towards his clan and village. A must have especially if youre an itachi fan.

Gift for my dad. He loves it!

Loved this book story was amazing.

I’m new to anime but Itachi’s story is a great read. No I know what I have been missing all these years.

One of my favorite stories in Naruto.

Great item, in great condition. Exactly like the ones in stores, but at a better price!

Really good books. I bought both books and i thought the books were better than the episodes they made.
