This book was purchased as a required reading for a preaching class. The price was better than the discount I would have received if I had purchased in locally from my church. Looks like easy reading. I received great service.

Enjoyable read. Real informative. Would suggest to others.

Creative, scholarly, and biblically sound. An excellent resource for preachers at any level of experience.

I chose the four star because the book has been so very helpful, and even though I was convinced before that preaching is about celebration, I"m more so now..

Excellent writing and extremely resourceful. This book is a necessity to every preacher and teacher of the Gospel. Buy it to keep for generations to come.

Very insightful treatise on preaching. A must for every pastor interested in improving his/her craft. The best book on teaching celebration in preaching and learning how to structure the sermon accordingly.

Excellent book which makes profound explanation of an important aspect of the African American preaching praxis. I was impressed enough to place his anthology of African American preaching on my summer reading and to by list. Extraordinary effort a wonderful read.

I was assigned this book for my preaching class, it was very helpful.I would recommend it. It works well by itself or in conjunction with Tom Long's book.
