This is an adorable little board book about Kitty Cat having to get up and get ready for school. The verse is done in a sing-song rhyme and I like to read this to my grandson when it is time for getting ready for his parents to pick him up to go home. He likes to take his shoes and socks off at my house and part of the book is about find the Kitty Cat’s shoes and socks.The illustrations are so cute, with Kitty Cat doing all sorts of silly things and poses that most toddlers and parents of toddlers can relate to. It is a sweet book and one that we read at least once a day.

My little one adores this book.Its a sweet book with cute illustrations that can keep little kids that love cats very engaged. The sentences are quite playful and rhyming and easily capture kids' attention. My son loves to say "kitty cat kitty cat" at the beginning and also fills out the ending words in each sentence. Totally happy with this book.

We love Bill Martin books and my niece (4) also loves kitty cats, so this book couldn't be more suitable! She loves it as do I, because I love how his books teach kids to read through repetition. Adding this to our favorite books bin!

Kitty Cat, Kitty Cat, Are you Waking Up? is a cute rhyming book for preschoolers who can relate to many of the distractions that cause Kitty to be late. Kitty is very cheerful through it all and the text is catchy for children. The illustrations are done in a soft, colorful style that depicts the story nicely. Adorable little book that my little kitty lovers enjoy.

Very sweet book that my cat obsessed toddler likes Grandkids love to read. This a fun book.

Great for someone 6 or under, in my opinion.

My daughter and I love this book. It reminds me of her when she tries to get ready for school in the morning; there's always something distracting her!
