Customer Reviews

Wildly uneven essays on gender, culture and architecture, good ideas brought up, but the pretentious writing of many of the entries can be hard to take at times.

This is a very interesting collection of essays on the subject of sexuality and gender roles apply to the development of architecture. If you are a arch theory buff this is a must read! Never did I think about how influential architecture was in propagating gender boundaries!

This is an incredible book. It is a very comprehensive collection if writings that is a must for those interested in this aspect of art and art theory. A must have!
