Synopsis

(Music Sales America). Most of the English-speaking choral singers who make up their country's thriving choirs and choral societies will have sung Bach's great Passions in English at some time or other. This edition is in both English and German, giving the individual choir the option of which language to perform in. This book contains a preface by the editor, Neil Jenkins, and a suggested 'on the day' rehearsal schedule by Sir David Willcocks. St. Matthew Passion was written for solo voices, ripieno choir, 2 SATB choirs and 2 orchestras. The vocal score contains all voice parts and a piano accompaniment.

Customer Reviews

This edition is great...just what I wanted. It is easy to read, well marked, and a joy to study. I intend to use it this Lenten season near Easter when I follow along with my Karl Richter cassette set with Janet Baker and the rest of the stellar cast of world-class singers. I am really looking forward to this fantastic experience, and the beautiful vocal score will be a big part of my enjoyment.

This is a much more attractive score than the Schirmer edition. It provides a good English translation with an introduction and notes by Neil Jenkins, with his new translation of the German text. There are several English translations, and some are less satisfactory than others.

Everything I wanted! Thank you!
