Synopsis

""Stores of the Year, No. 19 represents a significant increase in scope for the popular series. In addition to the page count increasing to 224, the book includes the winners of the Retail Design Institute’s 2012 International Store Design Award Winners. This competition, now in its 42nd year, attracts the best of the best in store design and is the industry’s only entirely peer reviewed competition. Hundreds of international entrants vie for top awards in categories ranging from departments stores and soft line specialty stores to supermarkets, restaurants and pop-up shops.Also included in this volume are the best stores from various categories as chosen by the editors of Retail Design International. This prestigious publication has been presenting the most in-depth visual coverage of the retail industry for more than 70 years. The editors’ selections, together with the Retail Design Institute’s award winners, means that this volume brings readers the very latest and most exciting store designs from around the world.Anyone interested in retail design--interior designers, architects, retail professionals and visual merchandisers--will find this book’s stunning photography and insightful editorial invaluable."
