As a children's pastor and parent of a preschool boy, this has to be the best devotional / storybook I have ever come across for this age group. This book could not have been more appropriately written for my 5 year old. I loves his devotional time and learning about the bible. We are nearly at the end of this book and I just feel like starting over again with it. The book has inspired all kinds of questions about God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit and a whole bunch of other spiritual questions. I love this book and highly recommend it to parents or children's ministries wanting to communicate the truths of the bible effectively with young children

This is a great bible, super cute illustrations and very relevant to today. It's not verse by verse but rather an interpretation, also I ordered it at a time where they offered a coloring book and a curriculum to go with it, it was a great buy :)

This Bible storybook is very nice. The stories are simple but thorough. We have several children's Bibles but this one is my 5 year old's favorite.It also comes with a built in book mark, which is a nice feature. The pictures are appealing to children.

Love this new book! Yes, we have the Jesus Story Book Bible and love that one. This is more of a devotional. I love the personal stories at the beginning--they make the scripture relatable and a great starting point for conversations with your kiddos.

I love this book, it's even teaching me a thing or two. My son, at three, is still a little too young to grasp all stories just yet. But I think it will be good to grow with him

Very well written for children to understand and learn about bible stories. We love the illustrations!

This book is awesome. I have three small kids (ages 1-5) and they all enjoy listening to me read it. The stories are short (1-2 pages) and retain my kids' attention. There are discussion questions that correspond with the stories. This is a great tool to use as a family to study the Bible. It is our new favorite! Thanks Judah and Chelsea!

So cute, sound doctrine, great to read to our kiddos to teach them the Gospel!
