Customer Reviews

The viola portion cannot be played as a solo because it is an accompaniment to the treble and bass clef. So if you want to play the melodies of your favourite Harry Potter soundtracks, you can't do that with this book on viola. Very disappointing and misleading! The viola part is completely removable so it's not a solo for violas at all. The viola part is just rests and single notes, very boring. DO NOT BUY! Have to go through the hassle of returning now!

My grandson, an avid Harry Potter fan, fell in love with this book and enjoyed playing the songs. It was often used as an enticement to practice other things,which had to be practiced well before we would bring this one out. The CD was very helpful.m I recommend it to all Harry Potter fans who also play viola.

I’ve played the trumpet and french horn. Started the viola a few months ago. Fun to play. Nice variety of difficulty levels for beginners.

Bought for my daughter. She LOVES it!!

My grandson will love this

Wasn’t expecting the violin/piano/bass/cello part to be so big compared to the viola section :/. Other than that the music is wonderful

I bought this for my 10 year old son. This is his second year playing the viola and this book is at his level and it has also revived his love of playing the viola, which was starting to dwindle this year. There is a CD that comes with it, but I could only play it on my computer.

The music and CD arrived quickly. The music book was in great condition. My daughter is pleased and so is her teacher. It’s fun to play some "non-classical" tunes.
