This book is all about a serious and devout way to understand and seek the help of angels, thru meditation and prayer. So if you are looking merely for angels that fly and look ethereal as in New Age books, this is not the book for you. But if you are mindful of your prayer life, you may want to keep this book handy as a reference guide for your devotions. This is not your frivolous angel book.

A lot of things were made more clear.

This is a beautiful book, which I love, but I have.to say that compared to other "good conditionI" books I have bought, including another copy of St Michael and the Angels, this copy should probably be described as "acceptable". I do not mind that it is not in as good condition as the other copy I bought, as I am keeping it for myself.

Absolutely EXCELLENT for anyone who wants to know anything about angels, the truth about them-not the popular made up fiction that anybody can become an angel, and Saint Michael himself. This is meant more for the Catholic but it is useful for anyone who wants knowledge.

Yes I gave this book 5 stars. I bought this book at a used book sale fund raiser. I was reading it while traveling but lost it. When I got home I found another copy on . That's how much I like it. I believe in angels but did not realize there is so much to know about them.

I've had this book for many years and each year my mom and I do the novena from it. I wanted to share with my daughter and include her in the yearly tradition. So I got this for her. It's a great book with beautiful descriptions of the angels. I highly recommend it.

Hard to find pre-Vatican II prayers and novenas, including two very powerful exorcism prayers written by Pope Leo XIII. Prayers and litanies to the archangels Michael, Raphael, Gabriel, and Guardian Angels and references to them as set forth in Scripture, Old and New Testament.

Great book about the Angels. A must read for everyone who wants a deeper devotion to the angels.
