Collectible Junior League cook book from Odessa,TX. No writing/spills in cook book. Spiral binding all intact. Comes from a smoke free home.

this was the cookbook that my mother gave me back in 1974 after I got married...being a careless cook some 30+years ago I laid my initial copy on top of a hot burner and promptly melted the binding...so years later after holding my original together with rubber bands I decided I deserved another.This is my go to cookbook...has many great recipes that are classic besides knowing everyone on the comittee which is a bit of nostalgia.I will give you who venture to own this classic a "happy cooking!!!" wish.

I have LOVED this book since it was first published. I lost mine in a move, so had to replace it, as all of my favorite recipes were in it.

I had a copy of the first printing, but I must have lent it to someone who didn’t return it. I saw where someone has it listed here for an outrageous price - don’t do that. You can buy it cheaper directly from the Junior League of Odessa - search it out online - and you’re also providing money to help the charities supported by the Junior League, including health care for the less fortunate.
