Wonderful exploration of the feasts of the bible and how Christ fulfilled them. Anyone who enjoys tying the old and new testament together will really enjoy this book and what it has to offer!

Phenomenal book....a book I guarantee you will be saying...really? I never knew that Really? Wow!

I learned about this book on Sid Roth's It's Supernatural. This is a great primer on the Biblical feasts for anyone wishing to follow their faith like Yeshua (Jesus) did. As I've been in the Messianic church for over 2 years I knew a lot of this already. This is the perfect book to read this month before so many Holy days.

I am in the process of reading it now. It shows Jesus through the ceremonies God commanded the Jewish people to perform at different seasons of the year, and he also explains the difference in how Christians normally look at these scriptures and then explains their meaning through Jewish culture views. I'm learning!

packed well and shipped quickly. Wonderful book. Used in a Bible study at our church. Covered the first 8 chapters in two sessions. VERY enlightening and well-organized. Highly recommended.

This book shows the relationship between the feasts of the Old Testament and their relationship to Jesus and then to our faith and beliefs as Christians.

Enjoyable ,children can glean. Good to pass to Jewish friend.

Great book very well written
