Synopsis

This Little Tiger took on the great state of Georgia and locked away the dawgs. Next, he drove to Arkansas and showed a hog who's boss. Then, he ran to Florida and put every gator up against the wall. This little tiger's name is Aubie, and he's here to tell you that Auburn doesn't mess around!

Perfect for an Auburn fan! Grandkids loved it!

Precious Book and my 3 year old wanted it read over and over!!

Kind of a strange book. I was hoping for my son to get to know more about Auburn & Aubie, but this comes off like all we do is hurt others? It has nice illustrations and my son likes the book, but I wouldn't recommend it. It doesn't read like a story and each page has nothing to do with the next. It basically just lists off the mascots of 9 other schools then says "war eagle all the way to Jordan Hare" Boom, there is the whole book.

This book is so cute! We have small children & have given many as gifts. I have had nothing but positive responses from everyone who sees the book! Our 2 yr old daughter wants it read ALL the time! She loves Aubie & this is a cute book. I don't agree with the other comment about it being "too violent". I didn't take it that way at all, nor did our friends or shops in our area. WAR EAGLE!!

This book is great for all ages! Its a parody of This Little Piggy, but Auburn style! It's got a witty humor to it that's funny for children and adults. I would recommend it for everyone. It's definitely a must have for your Little Tiger's library.

I was excited to see that there was an Auburn children's book and I ordered it as soon as it was available for my almost 2 year old. I realize that she won't understand it now, but I think she would question it later. I'm amazed that Aubie would approve this. He wouldn't kill a gator to make shoes, kill an LSU tiger to make a necklace (especially with the x's for eyes to symbolize that it was dead), or kill a gamecock to stuff a pillow, and I dislike the use of the phrase "smoked a volunteer"!It's one thing to have things like this on a game day shirt, but for kids?? No thank you.This went right back in the box and will be returned to after Christmas.
