I have always loved this concerto. I hope to learn to play it - as part of my "bucket list." You cannot beat Schirmer products..

Happy to find a copy to replace my old mildewed one. Now I just need to practice!

Good prodct

Five stars....not for the printed music, but for what I know it is supposed to sound like. Schirmer's Library always does a great job in its notation. I may never reach the point of playing Grieg's concerto with a great command of the keyboard, but I wanted (mostly) to follow along to a recording I have. Listening to this performed well deserves a 5-star rating.

This score of Grieg's Concerto includes the Percy Grainger notations. I find them kind of difficult, so I don't use them much. But it helps to see what other fingering options are possible. The print is clear and a nice size. The historical/biographical background included in the beginning of the score is most helpful. And all in all, it is a good score to learn this piece from.
