Customer Reviews

For over 35 years, School Zone has been an innovator in children’s educational products. School Zone creates a wide range of educational resources to support every curriculum.

I’ve purchased several flash card packages from School Zone now, and they’re just great! The cards are about the same card stock as playing cards, with one side shiny/laminated and the other side not. One thing I noted was that despite the "flimsiness" of the cards that other reviewers mentioned, these cards can take a beating - my two toddlers have bent, squashed, and thrown around these cards and amazingly none of them have torn! Even if they did, for less than $2 a pack, it’s not a problem. We like to hole punch a single hole in the corner of the card and keep them together with one of those circular binder clips - it keeps the cards together and we can just toss the whole pack in the kid’s backpacks/in the car for them to play with when we go on trips.Unlike the other reviewer, we didn’t receive a primarily Spanish pack - everything in this pack was in English. It has a good variety of cards in here, including color identification cards, shapes, directions (up, down, left, right), "go together" cards (dog - bone, bird - nest, etc), "Rhyming Word" cards (pear - bear, sled - bed, etc), and counting cards. Most of these cards can be used with dual purposes, such as the "Go together" and "rhyming word" portions - we use them as identification cards as they show the picture of the item with the word on the back. This is a good starter pack if you're looking to expose your kids to a variety of concepts. Highly recommended!

For almost $3 a pack and all the reviews, I thought these would be better. I wish they were. They are definitely sturdier, made of cardstock. One side is slick and one side is not. The quantity of cards is much but I was definitely sent "returned and used" cards. See picture. The box is slightly battered. On my other Alphabet set one of the cards has a rip in it. Both boxes were used and not in "good" condition. This product should NOT have been listed as new.

So much better than the Brighter Child brand. I will repeat - So much better than the Brighter Child brand! We have owned a lot of packs of flash cards and School Zone Publishing has never disappointed. Buy both brands if you want but I am certain you will toss the Brighter Child ones in drawer.

I like the cards, but I was very disappointed with the packaging and the color cards. The box was tattered and worn like it was a used deck. Not sure if it was or wasn't but I'm not going to worry about it. Also, the color cards should have been the entire color not seperated with two colors on the card. It it quite confusing to a child that is trying to learn one color at a time. Overall, they will be used, but if I had a choice I wouldn't purchase them for what I am trying to do with my grandson who is under 4 years old. They probably would be great for those pre-school age.

Our son knows his colors and shapes already ... he just turned 18 months old. We practice these cards all the time and he likes to play with them, too. He holds up cards and will say what it is "red circle", "blue" ... etc. He's a talker!

I bought these flashcards to use with ESL students. Overall, I was very impressed with the cards. However, there were some directional cards that were hard to understand, especially the left and right ones. We use the cards a lot and the students get a kick out of the images. I would recommend these cards for other ESL students or for little kids who are just beginning to learn colors, shapes, etc.

My twin toddlers (2 years 7 months) love these. They have nice bright pictures, are a perfect size, and they feel sturdy. As long as my toddlers don't purposely tear them up, they should last quite a while. I am homeschooling so they will get quite a bit of use. I will update this review if any problems arise after normal use and to report what age my kids are no longer interested in these.

I like these more than the First Words brand because the cards seem a bit more sturdy, plus they have the easy sorting edges and the pictures are more modern looking. My 1 year old daughter loves them and loves learning and showing mommy how she knows what each card says and I will definitely be using them to teach reading down the road. Good purchase for very little money.
