"Spot is one of the essential experiences of childhood." -Parents Magazine --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Had this book as a child and had to get it for my sons first birthday. It’s perfect! He loves it. He’s at the age where he loves animals and flaps, so we read this book a lot! He’s not super gentle, but the flaps are hanging in there. They aren’t very thick, like some other books he has, but after having this book for months and reading it atleast once a day, they are all intact.

My son initially found this at the library- I knew once we had it checked out and at home for a few days we would need our own copy to soften the blow of returning the other one. He was 20 months old when we started reading it, and it’s still currently one of his favorites. He calls it "seek"- because the animals are all playing hide and seek at spots birthday party. He loves to lift the flaps, describe the animals on the pages, and point to different objects within the book to say their color. We've got tons of mileage out of this one so far, and I see us reading it for a while to come!

Great product and service.

Many of us grew up with the Spot books, and now we have the opportunity to share them with a whole new generation. This book has fun flaps, that when flipped the reader can discover more of the story. It's a very engaging book for a small child. The discovery aspect of the book really pulls the reader into the story. I highly recommend this book for a small child.

Two year old loves this book.

Cute book but has nothing to do with a birthday. It should be called "Hide and Go Seek Spot". I was hoping for a book that would help explain a birthday..cake under the flap, presents, kazoos, etc, not just hide and go seek with the friends in all the Spot books.

I purchased this book for my grand daughter's birthday. She enjoys the Spot books, and especially liked that Spot had a birthday at the same time as her birthday! Her 18 month old baby sister carries all the Spot books around the house, showing the hidden pictures to anyone who will explore with her. Love those Spot Books!!
