Kindergarten-Grade 3-- Fox is lightning quick and mighty clever at attempting to make things turn out in his favor. Here he is foiled three times when his attempts to come out on top backfire, and he's never been funnier. There will be no sympathy for him when he tries to win a race illegally; when he's wooed into giving away his ten best comics; and when he is tricked into believing in Halloween magic. With its straightforward plot and dialogue, Marshall's text is just right for new readers. Most of the humor comes from the delightful pen-and-ink and watercolor illustrations--great facial expressions (appearing so simply created with lines and dots) and often funny poses of characters. Fox (is) Outfoxed again, and beginning readers are the big winners. --Gale W. Sherman, Pocatello Public Library, IDCopyright 1992 Reed Business Information, Inc. --This text refers to an alternate Paperback edition.

In his seventh appearance, Fox--always a bit too clever for his own good--gets three more just deserts: when he cheats by using little sister Louise as the engine of his homemade race car; when a neighbor gleefully absconds with the beloved comics he has mendaciously disparaged; and when Louise, abandoned in her Halloween pumpkin costume by the older kids, renders some delightfully novel and appropriate poetic justice. Illustrations limned with Marshall’s usual zest and verve; good comical fun. (Easy reader. 4-8) -- Copyright Ã Â©1992, Kirkus Associates, LP. Fun series. My 1st grader enjoys reading these over and over. I think she’s very comfortable with the story line and movement. The Fox series has helped make her a more confident reader.

I typically read it out loud first then my 7 year old niece reads it back. The pictures are fun and the font clear and large.

Bought the whole set when one of my 2nd graders fell in love with them. We were so sad to look up the author to find he had died years ago. We wanted to write and thank him for these books!

Simple reading, fun times, primary level. We have followed the "Fox" Series with a couple of my young grandsons and they enjoy it.

love it

fun stories

I bought for my son. The story is quite simple and interesting. My son loves the story. He wanted another story of the series as well.

My book is called Fox Outfoxed. The mane characters are Fox, Louse, Carmen, Dexter and they are wanting to win a race and the race was in the afternoon. They were doing the race outside to have fun. I think fox Fox Outfoxed is a good book because it is about some animals that sometimes have adventures and go to school. That’s why I think it is a good book. And I would recommend this to my sister, Katie, because she likes animals and there are lots of animals in the book. By Matthew
