Synopsis

Artists, photographers, and lovers alike are drawn to the warm, romantic tones of the Golden Hour. In this book, talented artist Tom Swimm shows aspiring artists how to effectively capture the drama of sunsets in oil or acrylic. Readers can find tips on choosing a color palette, taking photo references, and creating a convincing interplay of light and shadow. Tom also guides aspiring artists step by step through a number of beautiful sunset paintings, from coastal scenes to charming landscapes.

Customer Reviews

Tom Swimm is a self-taught artist who has long been inspired by the work of Van Gogh, Monet, and Hopper. His artwork has been displayed in several galleries in the US and in Paris, France. Known for his exceptional use of light and color, his LightScapesÃ Â© paintings are collected throughout the world and are available in limited edition serigraphs, gicleÃƒÂ©s, and lithographs. Born in Miami, FL, and raised in New York, Tom currently resides in San Clemente, CA. www.tomswimmfineart.com

This how to book gives some excellent step-by-step for developing composition and layering colors to achieve the desired effect. Very instructive and just what I expected.

Thank you

Not as educational as I had hoped, but nice.

wasnt what i needed

I would have liked more step by step photos. The book has great illustrations but I would have preferred more. Otherwise the book is great.

More than what I expected.

Terrific item for artists.

Wasn’t too impressed with this book and the sunsets inside it. I bought it as a gift so I hope it will be helpful for the beginning artist.
