Ezra Jack Keats (1916Ã¢â ¬â œ1983) is the Caldecott Medal winning author ofÃ Â The Snowy Day, which broke ground in 1962 as one of the first picture books for young children to portray a realistic, multi-cultural urban setting. Purchased for an elementary school.

Great book, my students loved it so I had to purchase it.

Great book. Great as a mentor text. Uses wonderful language even for upper grades. This book really helped my class add great language to their writing.

This story explores Peter's feelings about his new sister. Ezra Jack Keats stories are always engaging for children with just the right amount of emphasis on the emotional theme. Kids want to read it again and again because it speaks subtly to their hearts.

Great Book
