Synopsis

Asia is growing rapidly in touristic interest. ITMB is pleased to announce the release of our most recent map pack bundling, this time of Malaysia & Indonesia Cities. This Map Pack has a value of $22 if purchased separately, and a packaged price of $13.95 if purchased in this bundle. The maps are all current editions, conveniently grouped together in a transparent plastic bag with a new cover, showing the covers of the two maps. Jakarta / Greater Jakarta 1:21,000 Indonesia is emerging quickly as one of the power-houses of Asia. Jakarta is a huge urban area, with a charming city centre. This double-sided map shows Greater Jakarta on one side, with its expressways and inter-urban train network and is, in my opinion very useful to business visitors to the city. It includes the airport, the city centre, the enormous soccer stadium (worth a visit), and the roads connecting the different neighbourhoods of this spread-out city. The other side concentrates on the central core of Jakarta, which is where most visitors would spend most time. Road and rail connections are clearly shown, as well as a good range of embassies, museums, hotels, gas stations, religious buildings, hospitals, and touristic attractions. Asian cities tend not to be well-mapped; the last map of the city that I recall was done about ten years ago, so this should fill a gap. ITMB also publishes a map of the island of Java, for those planning trips beyond the city. The second map of this Map Pack is the capital of Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur. 1:10,000; 1st Edition. This modern, bustling, vibrant and developing rapidly city has the twin giant Petronas towers, the tallest such buildings in the world. KL also has one of the world’s longest monorails, with 11 stations, as well as two other elevated rapid transit lines and an express train to the airport. The railway station provides excellent air-conditioned service to all parts of the country. The Colonial District in the city center is now largely the administrative center for what is developing into one of Asia’s powerhouses. Nearby Chinatown contains the bulk of the visitor accommodations, and the Little India and Chow Kit shopping areas just to the north complete the scene. All two maps, a value at $22 are being offered as a package for the bargain price of $13.95. This offer is available to individuals, libraries, retailers and distributors. Please note to all retailers and distributors, this product is NOT subject to Return or Exchange. It is well-packed and should be sold as a bundle package to customers
