Customer Reviews

This was a well written and entertaining story about two friends who take an interesting trip to Canada via an unorthodox route (cargo ship, car, ferry). The story weaves together the author’s two prior experiences in Newfoundland with the story of getting there this third and final time.By the way if you are Canadian, this book should be a cult classic.

Interesting travel log of a trip by two good friends to Newfoundland in the WINTER...BRRRR.

I took the time to read Three Legs to Newfoundland and it was a great story about the most random of adventures. The story highlights the tale of Timm and MylanÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢s trip to the island of Newfoundland during Christmas Break in 1998.It does a lot to illustrate the follies of travelling during the Winter in Atlantic Canada by boat or car but the fun that can be had. It also does a lot to highlight the Newfoundland character and the character and kindness of strangers.I would totally recommend this to any person who enjoys a good tale of Newfoundland or travelling and adventures.
