Customer Reviews

I will be travelling through Europe next year, so this book caught my attention as I will be visiting Hungary. I didn't really know much about Budapest, and all it has to offer. This book definitely opened my eyes to all the things I could do and see while visiting the city. This book provides a great overview of the city plus good references for how to get around, historical sites, entertainment, food etc.

The referenced websites in this book are terrible. Maps are in Hungarian, as are most other referenced material. Not at all helpful. Bought the one on Vienna as well. The restaurants they note are upward over $100. Forget this book, go for one which is helpful!

This was a great book to read for the 72 hours we had in Budapest! Finding a tour guide once we were there (through our hotel), was even better!

worthless waste of $8 Buy another!

It's OK

Some interesting information but not as glossy and impactful as others I've seen.

Good for planning my next trip.
