Customer Reviews

The photos are great to get an idea of what there is to see. They’re also helpful after the trip if, for example, you’ve forgotten which of the many churches you took a photograph of. This book tells you the history of Moscow, shows you each of the areas of Moscow, and some of the best bars/restaurants/cafe's/etc in those areas. Places have changed since the realising of this book, but still I highly recommend this book for anyone visiting Moscow.

I liked the detailed, "What to see" section of the book, advice about transportation around the city, an explanation about transport from the airports to the city center. Surprised that it had no mention of the Bolshoi as something to see. Would have liked some info on getting a Russian visa, tour agencies upon arrival, and recommended hotels.

Book has helped us prepare for our upcoming vacation to Russia.Because our time in Moscow will be limited, the book helped us plan our time,and we will be able to visit all sites on our itinerary and 2 site not originally planned.I would recommend this book to anyone planning a trip to Moscow.

took all of five minutes to complete. no information that could not be found on any travel website. do not purchase.
