Customer Reviews

This is a very creative tale, lots of twists and a great deal of dry English folk wisdom. I am not familiar with English humour or family dynamics, so it was a revelation to me... quite a learning experience. I enjoyed it, however, and the ending was very satisfying. Good read!

This just did not hold my interest, but many others may enjoy it. I felt it was a little slow going, though it had a good plot and was humorous at times. I might try it again later when I am in the mood for a slower moving novel. Nothing by Catherine Cookson can really be bad.

This book would make a great production for Masterpiece. I couldn’t even begin to guess how it would end. I enjoyed all the characters.

This my favorite author of all times have read and own most of her books

This is a nice story that will keep you spellbound to the last page.Catherine Cookson tied the tale up nicely.

Boring. Almost stopped (should have) reading a couple of times.

I am a big fan of Catherine Cookson. I love her books. Thank you.
