This is so pretty. Since my calendar has a prominent place in my kitchen and I see it all of the time, I wanted something unusual! It has a nice, mystical fairy-tale, fantasy kind of vibe about it and would make a great gift. Per the liner notes, the art work is from a 2004 short film entitled " A Knock At The Door", based on a poem written by Angi Sullins. Written for the artists who inspire her, the poem was translated into paintings and music, then made into film, and finally translated into print. What an amazing journey!The colors are lovely and the artwork is beautiful.

I have been getting these calendars for about six years now and I canÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t get enough of them. The artwork is SO BEAUTIFUL and there are lovely quotes written underneath the pictures that inspire you. I like that the blocks are big enough so I can write in appointments and little notes. I rely on my calendar to keep me on track to remind me of events coming up and to keep me on track. Price wise, I donÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢t mind at all. I know I could get a cheap generic calendar but I have to look at the thing all year long and for that annual price, no big deal to me. It usually releases around July for the following year so if you pick it up then youÃƒÂ¢Ã â ¬Ã â„¢ll pay about the lowest price. Highly recommend!

This calendar is large, with lots of holidays of various faiths, including pagan, moon phases, high-quality art reproduction, and wonderfully inspiring messages. I wish I'd discovered their calendars years ago, as now the ones from past years are quite pricey. Otherwise I'd be collecting every one I find!

Beautiful art and quotes for every month. Lists moon phases, pagan/Wiccan holidays, solstices, equinoxes, and holidays from many cultures.

This is the third calendar I've ordered in this series. They hang in my home office, and I've saved them for the artwork. The pictures inspire imagination and give my mind a break from the mundane. I love visiting these worlds and enjoy the thoughtful words included each month.

Beautiful calendar, I hope they make one in 2018.

Always love getting the "Knock at the Door" calendars and this one does not disappoint.

OMG...this calendar is SO beautiful and uplifting. This is the second year I've bought A Knock at the Door, and will continue to buy it every year it's available. The artwork is lovely.
