Synopsis

Seventh-day Adventists believe that Ellen G. White exercised a true prophetic gift. They believe that God graciously spoke to her in divine revelations, and that through her, He sent inspired messages to His church. In this book, the author gives historical facts related to the life and work of Ellen G. White, and shows the influence she has had on the Seventh-day Adventist church amidst the changing times in which she lived. Many hospitals, schools, publishing houses, churches, and mission stations around the world testify to her heaven-born inspiration. The lives of thousands were changed by her Christ-centered ministry.
